Portugal is an attractive tourist destination, especially in the month of July and therefore the airports of Lisbon and Porto are sometimes busy than expected. The below tips may help you to reach Aveiro city more comfortably.

Tips for Lisbon airport:

Waiting in queue for taxi at Lisbon airport may at sometimes be longer due to arrival of multiple flights during the same time.

1. Get into the Metro at Lisbon airport and reach the Orient train station. Continue your journey to Aveiro city by train (https://www.cp.pt/). Please try to book these train tickets online in advance if possible to confirm the reservation in alpha train or Intercity train. Tickets can also be purchased at Orient train station.
2. The other option (cheaper than train) is to take a bus from Lisbon airport (just outside airport exit) to Sete Rios Bus terminal. You can continue your journey to Aveiro City by another direct bus from Sete Rio bus terminal. Please check the timetable to adjust your convenient time https://www.rede-expressos.pt/
3. Taxis are available just outside Aveiro train station and will cost between 5 Euros to 7 Euros to reach the Hotels within Aveiro City.

Tips for Porto airport:

Get into the Metro at Porto airport and reach Porto Campanha train station. Tickets are available at airport metro station.

You can take the Urban train from Porto Campanha station to Aveiro train station. There is separate queue to buy Urban train tickets at Porto Campanha train station.
